1. Definitions

1.1 In this Agreement, unless otherwise defined below, capitalised words shall have the meaning given to them on Page 1.

Documentation Fee means the fee for Novuna's costs of handling the proposal, setting up the Agreement and releasing the funds;

1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular shall include the plural (and the reverse).

2. Loan

2.1 Novuna agrees to lend and the Customer agrees to borrow the Amount of Credit set out on Page 1 for general business purposes (the Loan).

2.2 This Agreement will only become binding when it is signed by both the Customer and Novuna. Novuna will send the Customer a letter confirming when the Agreement has been signed by Novuna.

3. Payments

3.1 The Customer shall pay Novuna the repayment amounts and the Documentation Fee on the due dates for payment set out on Page 1 (the Repayments).

3.2 The Customer must pay the Repayments when due by direct debit. All sums payable under this Agreement must be made without any deduction. Prompt payment of all sums payable under this Agreement is essential.

3.3 If the Customer is required by law to make any deduction or withholding, the Customer must pay to Novuna such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that Novuna receives the full payment amount due to Novuna.

3.4 Repayments shall only be treated as paid on the date of receipt by Novuna of cleared funds. Where applicable, VAT will be payable on any sums due under this Agreement at the rate applicable when the relevant Repayment is due.

3.5 If the date of Repayment of any amount under this Agreement is not a day on which banks in London are open for the transaction of banking business generally, the Repayment shall be made on the next business day.

3.6 If the first date of payment of any amount under this Agreement is due at the end of a month which has more days in it than subsequent months when payments are due, in respect of those shorter subsequent months, the payment shall be due on the last day of the month.

3.7 Novuna will consider two requests from the Customer to change the due date for payment provided that the new payment date must be within 14 days of the original payment date and fall within the same month as the original Repayment date.

3.8 The Customer can repay this Agreement early at any time, in part or in full, by paying Novuna some or all of the amounts the Customer owes Novuna. Novuna will take account of any rebate to which the Customer may be entitled to by law. If Novuna receives a Repayment which is more than the Customer's normal monthly Repayment, Novuna will treat the surplus amount as a partial early repayment unless the Customer tells Novuna otherwise. The Customer's monthly Repayments will remain the same but Novuna will reduce the Customer's last payment and/or the duration of the Agreement by adjusting the number of Repayments, depending on the amount the Customer repays early.

4. Default

4.1 If the Customer fails to pay any Repayment on the due date, or if any information the Customer provides is incomplete or inaccurate; or if without Novuna's consent the Customer cancels or do not complete a valid Direct Debit Instruction; if the Customer dies or Novuna have grounds to believe the Customer cannot pay their debts, then Novuna shall be entitled, after the expiry of proper notice, to demand immediate payment of the unpaid balance of the Total Amount Payable less any rebate the Customer may be entitled to by law.

5. Compensation

5.1 The Customer shall compensate Novuna for any amount incurred by Novuna as a result of the Customer's failure to perform their obligations under this Agreement.

6. Varying the Agreement

6.1 Novuna will have the power to vary the terms of this Agreement if Novuna reasonably consider it is necessary to do so, taking into account the Customer's legitimate interests. Novuna will not need the Customer's consent to make changes but will normally give the Customer an explanation of Novuna's reasons in advance and an opportunity to make comments before the changes take effect. Examples of when Novuna might exercise this power include:

- (a) to amend the duration of the Agreement and/or the timing or amounts of Payment falling due if Novuna have reached an arrangement with the Customer to do so; or
- (b) to amend any other terms of this Agreement if Novuna consider that the existing terms may work to their detriment; or

- (d) to give effect to any change in law or regulation or guidance that affects this Agreement; or
- (e) to give effect to any decision or requirement of regulators including the Financial Conduct Authority, a court, the Financial Ombudsman or other administrative body that applies to Novuna or this Agreement.

6.2 For changes Novuna make to this Agreement as a result of 6.1 above, Novuna will give the Customer reasonable written notice of any change before it takes effect.

Novuna will take account of any rebate to which the Customer may be entitled to by law. If Novuna receives a Repayment which is more than the Customer's normal monthly Repayment, Novuna will treat the surplus amount as a partial early repayment unless the Customer tells Novuna otherwise. The Customer's monthly Repayments will remain the same but Novuna will reduce the Customer's last payment and/or the duration of the Agreement by adjusting the number of Repayments, depending on the amount the Customer repays early.

4. Default

4.1 If the Customer fails to pay any Repayment on the due date, or if any information the Customer provides is incomplete or inaccurate; or if without Novuna's consent the Customer cancels or do not complete a valid Direct Debit Instruction; if the Customer dies or Novuna have grounds to believe the Customer cannot pay their debts, then Novuna shall be entitled, after the expiry of proper notice, to demand immediate payment of the unpaid balance of the Total Amount Payable less any rebate the Customer may be entitled to by law.

5. Compensation

5.1 The Customer shall compensate Novuna for any amount incurred by Novuna as a result of the Customer's failure to perform their obligations under this Agreement.

6. Varying the Agreement

6.1 Novuna will have the power to vary the terms of this Agreement if Novuna reasonably consider it is necessary to do so, taking into account the Customer's legitimate interests. Novuna will not need the Customer's consent to make changes but will normally give the Customer an explanation of Novuna's reasons in advance and an opportunity to make comments before the changes take effect. Examples of when Novuna might exercise this power include:

- (a) to amend the duration of the Agreement and/or the timing or amounts of Payment falling due if Novuna have reached an arrangement with the Customer to do so; or
- (b) to amend any other terms of this Agreement if Novuna consider that the existing terms may work to their detriment; or
- (c) to amend any other terms of this Agreement if Novuna consider that it is in Novuna's interest to do so, and the new terms will not work to their detriment; or
- (d) to give effect to any change in law or regulation or guidance that affects this Agreement; or
- (e) to give effect to any decision or requirement of regulators including the Financial Conduct Authority, a court, the Financial Ombudsman or other administrative body that applies to Novuna or this Agreement.

6.2 For changes Novuna make to this Agreement as a result of 6.1 above, Novuna will give the Customer reasonable written notice of any change before it takes effect.
